

Merle Haggard

Outlaws like him are the real deal.
There's no role-playing or joking around when it comes to the legendary Merle Haggard!

In the 1950's Merle was arrested and sent to jail for trying to rob a Bakersfield roadhouse. After attempting to escape – he was then sent to San Quentin Prison, where he served a two-year sentence and performed in the prison's country music band.

Since the mid-1960's Merle Haggard has been one of the most recognized names in country music!

He's written many of his own songs, and collaborated with several other legendary performers, such as Johnny Cash and Willie Nelson.

Even if his music isn't your cup of tea-you still have to give respect where respect is due.
Merle Haggard is one Bad-Ass-Muther Fker!

In 2014 Merle will turn 77 years old... but age doesn't mean a thing when your name is Merle Haggard.
He'll just continue on. . . doing things his own way-writing songs and performing them.

Merle Haggard – A True Music Legend!
